The Best Labor Day Beauty Sales for 2017

While sales on Black Friday and Cyber Monday tend to get a ton of hype, Labor Day beauty sales aren't something to sleep on. This year, the best deals on makeup, skin care, and more are coming at us late next week. Ulta is celebrating its 21 Days of Beauty Sale, Urban Decay is selling one of its Naked palettes for half price, and some of our favorite brands like Bare Minerals and Dr. Dennis Gross are giving customers serious discounts—all in honor of the holiday.

If there was ever a time to start stocking up on beauty products, it's the end of summer sales. Just pretend it's your back to school supplies shopping, with way better stuff for your pencil pouch.

Fairy Tales Haircare: From September 3-9, buy two get one free at ulta.com, so you'll never run out of shampoo.
